

Are you ready to upgrade?

A platform upgrade can be quite an undertaking. Migrating large volumes of data, integrating third-party and custom applications, and implementing new user requirements shouldn't be taken lightly.

ASSESSMENT METHODOLOGY

Our team is working for you. Our carefully crafted assessment analyzes your infrastructure to determine what the best next step is for your organization. In order to work with all necessary parties, we offer the assessment in person, virtually, or in a hybrid model.

WEEK 1

Gather all necessary information and artifacts, and conduct discovery meetings with stakeholders.

WEEK 2

Analyze current Liferay platforms, including customizations, applications, infrastructure, functional (user) and nonfunctional requirements, and more. BONUS: UX/UI Analysis - We'll bring in our team of user experience and interface designers to assess your site's design and usability.

WEEK 3

Review of tasks, resources, budget, risk, testing, and go-live strategies. And finally, a tailored-to-you report with upgrade recommendations.

WHY DO ORGANIZATIONS LIKE YOURS UPGRADE?

A platform migration or upgrade to Liferay DXP is often a catalyst for business improvement. With our team of experts, a typical migration will take approximately 45-90 days. Our methodology is designed to maximize business outcomes in the shortest possible timeframe.

Fast Timelines:

Whether in collaboration or with delegation, Veriday's Liferay Migration experts will deliver a like-for-like solution, freeing your resources to focus on growing your business.

No More End-of-Life Risk:

Outdated platforms not only lack the latest features but create the possibility of performance and security threats, requiring more resources to maintain.

Foundation for Enhancements:

With your solution in place on Liferay DXP, you will have all the latest features and development tools to enhance and scale your solution as your business grows and requirements change.

Modernization:

In today's ever-evolving technology landscape, organizations must be agile enough to deliver the best user experiences. Veriday and Liferay make sure you're at the forefront of what's possible.

Access to a Full Suite of New Products:

With an upgrade to Liferay DXP, you can now integrate with the latest Liferay products, including DXP Cloud, Liferay Commerce, and Cloud Analytics.

No File Left Behind:

From files and documents to entire sites and custom applications, our process will ensure that anything and everything is migrated to Liferay DXP.

Additional Enhancements:

- Cloud Implementation,
- UX/UI Redesign,
- DXP Readiness Training,
- ADA Compliance,
- Platform Roadmap Consulting.
